Burns Night

Join in the festivities this year

January 25th marks the annual celebration of Scotland's National poet, Robert Burns.

Burns Night, effectively a second National day, is celebrated with Burns Suppers around the World. The format of Burns Suppers has not changed since his death in 1796.

The basic format starts with a general welcome and announcements followed with the Selkirk Grace. Post the grace comes the piping and cutting of the haggis, where Roberts' famous address to a haggis is read. It is concluded with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

We have the following options of fresh haggis to choose from to help you with your Burns Night planning.
